The Friends of the Parsippany Library is made up of people who believe that the library is the heart of the community. Our libraries need your help obtaining additional funds to help support as many free programs as possible to the residents of this community (whether you live and/or work here). We do this by holding fundraising events throughout the year such as: dining out at local restaurants; selling Macy's Shop for a Cause Day discount coupons and running the Book Nook. Our book store is located on the ground floor of the Community Center. It sells gently used books and holds book sales at the Main Library several times throughout the year.

A few of the programs we have recently helped sponsor are; Summer Reading Club; the Live Well, Age Smart Series; Maker Space supplies, the new book/media drop box, and Grounds for Sculpture Museum Pass. With your help, we can continue to sponsor such programs.

In addition to new membership donations, we are looking for people who are willing to help us achieve this goal by becoming active members and able to volunteer a couple of hours at different times during the year at our fundraising events. Please stop by at one of our meetings and see what we are all about. Meetings and event dates are listed on our website.
